

DAUBERT OUSTS ROBERTSON FROM LEAD; SPEAKER LOSES GROUND TO COBB AND JACKSON

DAVY ROBERTSON DISPLACED BY JAKE DAUBERT, WHILE COBB AND JACKSON GAIN ON SPEAKER. Giants' Youngster Drops to Second With .323—Ty With .367, Only 29 Points Behind Leader. "Shoeless" Joe Hitting .355

JAKE DAUBERT is back on top in the race for the honors in the National League batting contest, having displaced Davy Robertson, of the Giants. Ty Cobb and Joe Jackson both made gains on the leading Speaker, but the Texas still is in front with considerable to spare. These happenings were the most important in both leagues. Robertson has come down from a streak of five weeks without a slump in the heels of the apparently safe Speaker.

Rixey is right at the top in the pitchers' section, with 14 out of 19. Alexander is next with 22 wins and 8 defeats. Pfeiffer has a record of 12 and 7 in 20 games, winning 10 out of 25. Joe Bush has won 12 and lost 18; Myers has won 10 and lost 17.

Amos Strunk worked his way into the select, having an even .300. McInnis dropped from .250 to .256.

BORBELL DEFEATS BRUSSO IN HARD BOUT AT CAMBRIA

Kensington Middleweight Makes Excellent Showing and Wins Easily

BOTTLE THROWN IN RING

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL. Joe Borrell, the pride of Kensington, boasted his social standing in his own neighborhood last night when he administered a severe beating to the head and body of one Noah Brusso, of Boston, in the window of the Cambria A. C. Joseph from Kensington was in excellent form and won by a large margin.

However, it was a mighty good battle, with both boys trying hard from the start. Brusso had trained faithfully and showed it in every move, carrying the fighting through the first round, using a left hook to good advantage and had Borrell guessing. He kept it up in the second round, fully determined to win the fight.

This time, however, he almost passed off into retirement slumber. In the fifth round again hit the rocky road and was in bad shape. Borrell staggered him with several hard rights to the head and body, and Brusso's wonderful recuperative powers pulled him through. He had more hard luck in the last session, but Joe was unable to finish him before the bell.

In the sixth round, while the boxers were working back a sufficient amount of rest, a bottle was thrown into the ring. It struck one of the electric lights, bounded off, narrowly missed Borrell and landed in the front row of seats. Fortunately, no one was hit, but a serious accident might have resulted. A search was made for the thrower, but he could not be found.

Johnnie Burns, one of the owners of the club, said afterward that the bottle was thrown was prosecuted to the full extent of the law if he is found.

This bottle-throwing stunt was entirely uncalled for, as the boys were putting up one of the best battles of the year and deserved lots of applause instead.

Borrell looked better last night than he ever before. His left hand was working beautifully, his judgment of distance was good and his defense could not be improved upon. He was Brusso's superior at every stage of the game and if he continues to improve, Joe should have a successful season. Brusso also made a good showing, for he took everything that was handed him and fought back at all times. It was a wonderful exhibition of nerve.

Spectators Aid Boxers. The Cambria A. C. is the most successful open-air club ever run in this city. The ring is pitched in a big lot, with a row of trees on one side and a row of bleachers on the other. The cash customers are well acquainted with the regulations and give them all kinds of advice while the battle is on. The bouts are very good and the public is well served in every respect.

Just before there was more action in the preliminary rounds, we have never seen before in Philadelphia.

In one of the prelims—we forget which one—a successor to Willie Meelan appeared before the multitude. He was a boxer who subbed for a boxer who insisted on boosting the price for his services until he lost out altogether. Monk put on his act and fought a great while, but he was there was much joy and laughter. Monk insisted on blocking all of the blows with his face and in the fifth round the referee mercifully stopped the fight. It was a pity that the champion was not there to see the fight.

Whitely Baker was beaten by Charlie Dixon in the opening round to Jack Hanlon and Tommy Gorman won from Young Conway.

The first show of the Washington Sporting Club of West Philadelphia was called off last night on account of the contractors who were to complete the building of the ring. As a result several hundred fans were disappointed. Eddie Hart and Tommy Jamison, who were to box the wind-up, will meet next Friday night.

Scraps About Scrapers. By LOUIS H. JAFFE. Benny Kaufman has just scored a K. O. in fighting of a mere of balls and from now on he will be known as the "ball" fighter.

Recently K. Williams announced that he would retire before he would reach his 24th birthday. He is still in the ring and his promoter, it is said, has refused to let him retire. Williams is a very good fighter and his promoter is a very good promoter.

Willie Jackson, the New Yorker who is sparring with George Chaney for the latter's Labor Day fight, is said to be a very good fighter. He is in the semifinal to that battle. He will be opposed to Alvie Miller, of Loraine, O.

Several wealthy professional men have been seen during the tournament and established a record for the 5914-yard course. He was pressed hard for this honor by H. C. Lagerbladt, of Youngstown, O., who registered 82 on the last round.

The course was hard and fast as a result of scorching weather, which caused several contestants to withdraw after the morning round. Simpson found the going in the city with the wind straight down the hill and pitched to the far side of the blind ground. His 30-foot putt was dead and he made the required score.

Hagen had only one stroke to spare, as George Sargent, of Minneapolis, and Jack Hutchinson, of Pittsburgh, tied for second place with 287. George O. Simpson, of Chicago, and James M. Barnes, of Philadelphia, followed with 288 each.

These five men won all the prizes, as Simpson, with a wonderful 65 in the third round this morning, took the special prize for best score during the tournament and established a record for the 5914-yard course.

RIXEY MISSING; MAYER TO FACE REDS IN FINAL

Southpaw Fails to Join Team After Visit at Home. TONEY IS MATTY'S PICK. By CHANDLER D. RICHTER. CINCINNATI, Aug. 19.—Eppa Rixey, the only southpaw pitcher on Pat Moran's staff and also the most dependable hurler of the National League champions aside from Alexander the Great, is among the missing. Unless he turns up in Cincinnati before game time today, the Phillies will depend upon Erskine Mayer to trim the Reds this p. m.

Rixey was given permission to go to his home in Virginia after beating the Giants early in the week, but was ordered to report in Cincinnati yesterday. The giant southpaw promised to do so, but has failed to put in an appearance, and has not notified Moran of the cause of his absence. Therefore, the Philly pilot is very much peeved this morning, and unless Rixey can make a satisfactory explanation he is likely to be the first player fined by Moran.

No Fines. In two years Moran has not been called upon to fine a player for breaking the club's rules, but Rixey is likely to be punished unless his explanation is satisfactory. It was Moran's intention to send Rixey to the mound today and bring him back for the second game of the double-header against the Pirates on Tuesday, but this plan probably will be changed, as Pat does not feel that he should permit Rixey to face the Reds, considering the fact that he has not had a ball in his hand for five days.

Lack of control handicapped Rixey for two years, and it was not until the present season that he was well equipped to succeed in getting command. Plenty of work, both in actual combat and in the morning practice, was responsible for Rixey getting control, and recently he has shown better command of the ball than any left-hander in either league. The lack of work is certain to affect his control, and it may be a few days before he is back in form.

The splendid showing made by Mayer in his game against the Giants and a continuation of his 1915 brand of hurling in practice has caused Moran to give the side-arm artist his old position as the team's running mate, and he will be picked to go against Fred Toney this afternoon unless Rixey reports in good shape.

Phil's Fear Toney. Toney is feared by the Phillies, who have not been able to do much with the Kentuckian, and Moran will be much relieved when the final game of the year in this city has been played, and by the champions. It is said here that Toney is troubled with a lame shoulder and that he will not be able to face the Reds, but Manager Mathewson this morning said that his star would be on the mound.

Eight of the ten games played against the Reds in this city have been won by the Phillies, and it is evident that Hal Chase, declared after yesterday's game that he expected Moran's men to win the pennant, basing their bet on the wonderful control of Alexander, and the fact that the champions are playing consistent ball without being under a strain.

Shortstop Hobbs, of the Dayton team, is the central figure in the Cincinnati news. Manager Mathewson today reported that he had not decided whether he would send him into the game right away.

Alexander pitched only 80 balls in the nine innings yesterday, which is the same number he hurled in blanking the Giants early in the week. The total was divided as follows: 10 in the first, 12 in the second; 5 in the third, 12 in the fourth, 13 in the fifth, 8 in the sixth, 11 in the seventh, 13 in the eighth and 6 in the ninth inning.

Games that are not likely to be called off Alexander and he surely looks better than at any time in his career. Matty said after the game that he never saw a hurler in such good shape as Alexander, and he said that "Pascual will also drop out, there being no prospect left for the club between the Upland, Britz, Media and Clifton teams.

Fifty-mile Race at Motordrome. A 50-mile motor-race will be staged at the Motordrome at Camden, N. J., today and Wednesday. Chester Drops Out of League. CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 19.—The Chester Club management has decided to withdraw from the National League, and will not play the game scheduled for today with the Philadelphia Athletics, and a lack of support is given for this action, and it is said that "Pascual will also drop out, there being no prospect left for the club between the Upland, Britz, Media and Clifton teams.

PHILS GET TEXAS PITCHER. Jimmy Zinn, of Waco, Will Join Champions Next Spring. Manager Moran, of the Phillies, has landed Jimmy Zinn, last season's pitching sensation in the Western Association, from the Waco club, of the Texas League, where Zinn has been playing this year. Both Detroit and the New York Yankees were hot after Zinn, but Moran slipped in ahead of them. He will report to the Phillies next spring.

Zinn first came into prominence last season when he twirled sensational ball for the Fort Smith team. On a club that finished seventh in the league, he won 13 games and lost only three. This year he went to Waco, the champions of the Texas League, and has been keeping up his record.
